Essential Oils

10 ml

Essential oils, that is the set of aromatic substances responsible for the scent of plants, have been known and used since ancient times.

Over the centuries, they have experienced an alternation of glory and oblivion, but starting from the 90s, essential oils have returned to being the subject of investigation and, in particular, there has been an ever wider use of what is called Aromatherapy. This term refers to the use of essential oils in order to improve the quality and the feeling of health and well-being on a physical, emotional and mental level.

HAPPY TRAVEL

€ 59,00

Yellow anti-electrosmog device, with an action range of mt. 4 ball, for all means of transport. The HAPPY TRAVEL biomagnet, thanks to its programmed silica structure, is an effective remedy to significantly reduce the potential disturbances caused by electrosmog, generated by the presence of polluting equipment inside means of transport (GPS, cell phones, computers, etc ...).

By using HAPPY TRAVEL on any type of motor vehicle (cars, trucks, boats, planes), at the end of the journey people will be less tired and more relaxed and the electrostatic shocks that are normally felt when getting off the means of transport will be greatly reduced. Furthermore, HAPPY TRAVEL breaks down the clusters (lumps) present in the fuel that are formed due to electrosmog, favoring better combustion with consequent savings on consumption. It is positioned inside the vehicle making sure that its range of action which is mt. 4 to ball, covers the entire volume of the vehicle itself.

Upon request, HAPPY TRAVEL can be produced so that it has a wider range of action.
